This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CHURCH MANUAL.

The Church, and Candidates for Membership.

A Christian church is an association of professed Christians, united together for the worship of God and the celebration of religious ordinances, with the design of promoting their own growth in grace, and the interests of Christ's kingdom.

The members of this church, having united together for these purposes, cordially invite those dwelling among them, who hope they have "passed from death unto life," and who can accept the following confession of faith as substantially in accordance with the word of God, to unite with them in this holy service and fellowship.

To such as may be enquiring whether they are proper subjects for church fellowship, the following queries are proposposed as aids in that self-examination to which we are called by the apostle, "Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves: 2 Cor. xiii. 5.

1. Do I hate sin, heartily repent of it, and earnestly desire to be free from it?

2. Sensible of my own sinfulness, do I look to Christ alone for salvation, trusting in his atoning sacrifice?

3. Do I love holiness, and am I aspiring after likeness unto the character of Jesus Christ—making it my purpose and aim to do, and to be conformed to his will in all things?

4. Do I delight in secret prayer and communion with God?

5. Do I love the word of God, long for the ordinances of his house, and take pleasure in social worship?

6. Do I love the people of God, being attached to them by reason of their relation to Christ, and according to the measure of his image which they bear?

7. Do I feel drawn towards the people of God with a desire to enter into covenant with them to be the Lord's; and to cast in my lot with them, hoping thereby to be bound more strongly to a life of godliness? And is my love for Jesus such that I feel constrained to acknowledge him openly, and solemnly to bind myself to his service?

8. Is it my deliberate purpose, whatever may be my circumstances, to consecrate myself—time, talents, property and services to him who laid down his life for me?

9. Do I approve of the modes of worship practiced by this church, and can I heartily accept its confession of faith, and feel that henceforth this is my religious home?

10. Feeble as I am, can I sincerely trust my Savior for the sufficiency of his grace to fulfill these holy vows, saying in truth:—

"To this dear covenant of thy word,
I set my worthless name;
I seal the engagement to my Lord,
And make my humble claim?"

All who are considering the question whether it may not be their privilege and duty to profess their faith in Christ, are requested to make known their feelings to the pastor.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

ARTICLE 1. You believe in the eternal existence of Jehovah,[a] Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,[b] the Creator of all things; and that all his accountable creatures ought to render him perfect obedience forever.[c]

(a) Ps. 90: 2. 1 Tim. 1: 17. James 1: 17. Mal. 3: 6. Job 9: 7, 8, 9, and 26: 14.

(c) Deut. 6: 5. Ps. 18: 3: Isa. 6: 3. Mark 12: 30, 33.

ART. 2. You believe that Jehovah is possessed of infinite moral excellence, and that he administers a perfect moral government over the universe;[a] that he administers also a providential government, which extends to all events, great and small;[b] that to him alone belongs the glory of the saved: "according as he hath chosen them in Christ before the foundation of the world, that they should be holy, and without blame before him in love: having predestinated them unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will,"[c] (Eph. 1: 4, 5,) and that the impenitent in sin perish through their own voluntary perverseness.[d]

ART. 4. You believe that the Gospel of Christ finds mankind in a state of sin and condemnation, utterly destitute of that holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord,[f] and that, consequently, all must be renewed by the Holy Ghost, in the temper of their minds, before they can enter the kingdom of God.[g]

ART. 5. You believe in the divinity, incarnation, obedience, suffering and death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ;[h] that by his sufferings and death he hath made atonement for the sin of the world;[i] and that he ever liveth to make intercession for believers, "who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation." 1 Pet. 1: 5.[j]

COVENANT.

You do now in the presence of the heart-searching God, before angels and men, avouch the great Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God.

You receive the Father as your Father, the Lord Jesus Christ as your all-sufficient and only Redeemer, and the Holy Ghost as your Sanctifier.

Renouncing every sinful way, you devote your all unreservedly to God, and engage to walk in all his commandments and ordinances as required in his word.

You receive the brethren of Christ in this place, as your brethren, and his friends, as your friends. You also submit yourself to the government of Christ in his church, and to the regular administration of it in this church in particular. You covenant to walk in communion with your brethren, endeavoring to promote divine worship, and Christian love and fellowship, by all the means of Christ's appointment within your power: and to live as a humble Christian, in a regular and faithful attendance on the worship and ordinances of Christ in this place, and in the performance of all your solemn engagements to God and this church, until by the providence of God you are removed.

In reliance on Divine grace, this you solemnly engage.

NOTE.—It is recommended that the church rise, in token of their cordial approbation, while the Minister says:—

We do now publicly declare our reception of you as a member of this Christian church, in full communion.

To Members of other Churches residing among us.

It is the pleasure of this church to welcome to this field of labor all who love our Lord Jesus Christ, and to extend to them the hand of fellowship as they come to dwell with us. We wish to have members of sister churches feel at home among us, make themselves known to us, and enjoy with us our Christian privileges. If they have a letter of Introduction from their pastor, in their former place of residence, it is hoped they will at once present it. If they expect to remain here for a year or more, they are invited to present a letter of dismission and recommendation from the church to which they belong, at their earliest convenience.

To Members who are expecting to be Absent.

It is recommended to those who are expecting to leave us for a time, and go away among strangers, that they apply to the pastor for a letter of introduction; which is not to be used, however, for admission to another church. If their residence in another place is to be permanent, or for a year or more, it is desirable that they should take with them, or apply early for a letter of dismission and recommendation to the church in the place where they are to reside.

Organization and Pastors.

This church was organized by the direction and assistance of Rev. BENAJAH ROOTS—previously pastor of the first church in Simsbury, Connecticut—Oct. 20, 1773. He lived here, and was the minister of the church most of the time till he died, in 1787.

Rev. LEMUEL HAYNES, by vote of the church, March 28, 1788, took the pastoral care and watch of the church, and was dismissed by an ecclesiastical council convened April 29, 1818.

Rev. AMOS DRURY was ordained pastor June 4, 1819, and dismissed April 22, 1829.

Rev. LUCIUS L. TILDEN was ordained pastor, March 17, 1830, and dismissed Oct. 22, 1839.

Rev. ALDAGE WALKER was ordained pastor, Dec. 30, 1840.
